

General Practitioner

Ethan Ramirez

General practitioner

Description of Career

- Family doctor
- Give you health advice

What is a general practitioner?

- A general practitioner is a doctor who listens to the patients describe their health problems, and performs tests to determine what is wrong with the patient. They also prescribe the patient medicine and/or treatment required to improve their health.

Education Required

- bachelor's degree
- major biology
- 4 years of college
- 4 years of medical
- 2-6 years of residency

Work Styles

- Work at home
- open your own practice
- work for someone else
- work at a hospital

Skills and Abilities

- Can send you to a specialist
- Prescribe you prescription drugs
- Can check adults, children, and elderly

My Thoughts:

- I think this will be challenging but from the support from my family i can achieve it
- I need to have dedication and need to study hard and get good grades

I'm interested in this career because . . .

- I think this career will be achievable with a lot of dedication
- I want to have this career so I can give my mom and my own family whatever they want
- A lot of people in my family have medical degrees and are doctors, nurse, etc

Bibliography

- Keep track of the resources you used in the different parts of your research.
-
- General practice \(GP\) | Health Careers
- www.healthcareers.nhs.uk > doctors > roles-doctors > g...
-